

NEW ORLEANS - APRIL 20-23, 2017

Nicknamed the “Big Easy”, New Orleans is a gorgeous, vibrant, bursting-at-the-seams, laden with mystery, melting pot of a city. Known for its round-the-clock nightlife, pulsating live music scene and spicy, singular cuisine reflecting its blended history of French, African and American cultures. This is the place to eat, drink, listen to jazz or R&B, take part in a parade and immerse yourself in the atmosphere and enjoy some of the best food on the planet. Sugar dusted beignets are a must, cocktail hour is any time you want it and the street musicians will have you dancing on the sidewalks. There are those who visit this historical city to see what lies beneath and to stand quietly in front of buildings that have drawn every ghost hunter, psychic and paranormal investigator in the country. New Orleans has something for everyone, all ages, interests and lifestyles. It is described as the northernmost Caribbean city and the westernmost European city. You will not find another place quite like it in the world.

We will be staying at the Dauphine Orleans, an unforgettable boutique hotel in the French Quarter. The historic hotel features buildings that date back to the early nineteenth century, such as the Audubon breakfast room where John James Audubon painted his Birds of American series from 1821-22 while residing at the Audubon Cottages. Guests can take advantage of a quiet and relaxing stay while being within a short walk to the New Orleans streetcar lines, Bourbon Street and the Mississippi riverfront. Guests are welcomed to the Dauphine Orleans Hotel with a complimentary welcome beverage at the bar, May Baily’s Place, once a bordello in the former Storyville district. The palm-filled French Quarter courtyard beckons you to relax in the shade or bask in the sun poolside at the saltwater pool. Guests at this smoke free hotel enjoy complimentary deluxe continental breakfast, Wi-Fi access and in-room bottled water.
